

The Summer Picnic

By: Kinley A. Smith

This is a story of a summer picnic that I'll never forget. It started when I asked my Dad if my friends could come. He said okay! My name is Mya. I have purple hair and green eyes.

I am scared of heights and I'm also scared of hairy spiders. My best friends are Jack and Lucy. Jack has blue hair and gold eyes. Jack likes bugs and likes to talk a lot. He doesn't like flowers at all. Lucy is very shy and loves flowers. So I went to Jack's house and Lucy's house and told them that we were going on a picnic today and asked if they could come with me. Lucy said sure! Jack said let me go ask my mom... hey mom can I go on a picnic? Said Jack. Okay but be home in time for dinner said Jack's mom. Jack went to Lucy and said I can go as long as I'm home for dinner.

As soon as we got back my Dad said the picnic was next to the oaks. Jack and Lucy asked what the oaks was and I said it was a place where who ever went in will come out strange. Well we better get going its about a mile were here wow that was a long drive said Lucy. Come on guys let's go in the oaks. Jack said look there is a mountain in the oaks! Lucy said lets climb it. Guys I am scared of heights. Its okay my fear is an adventure said Lucy. We noticed there was spiders on top of the hill. I said ahhhhh and we ran to the field of flowers. Jack didn't go because he didn't like flowers. Jack had spiders chasing him so he had to run to the flower field. We noticed the flowers gave us magical powers to bring objects to us.

So We had Spiders float to the middle of the oaks. We went back to the picnic and told my Dad and used our powers to eat our food. That was the best summer picnic
of my life.
