

It was a sunny, summer day. My cats, Scout and Boo, were sleeping. I quickly jumped out of bed, got dressed, made my bed, and quickly ate. When I got outside, I put on my boots and got my bucket, and went to the creek. I was in the woods, I saw a deer and a chipmunk and a newspaper. I put it in the recycling bin when I heard a loud sound! The deer and chipmunk ran away, the sound had come from the creek! When I got to the creek an enormous egg lay on the rocky sand, next to the creek! My cats, Scout and Boo, came running, they jumped on the mysterious egg! What are they doing? Suddenly I heard another sound, sticks were snapping, leaves were rustling, then something very mysterious happened! A coyote, a deer, a racoon and an opossum all jumped on the egg, even a little chipmunk, then the egg made a loud cracking sound! All the animals jumped off the egg, the egg was wide open, before I could look inside a magnificent creature came out of the egg! The creature had a fishtail, colorful magnificent wings, a cat face, it could go on land and water!

“The garbage”, said the creature, “it’s hurting the plants, it’s hurting us animals, it’s even hurting you”. I was amazed, the creature said not to tell anyone anything about him, he also told me he was the king of animals and to meet him tomorrow at the creek. Soon the morning came, I was excited, I got ready as fast as I could! When I got to the creek he wasn't there, all I saw was a little frog. The frog hopped away, but the frog didn't hop in the water, it hopped rock to rock in a mysterious pattern! I followed the frog to my favorite part of the creek. Suddenly there was a puff of smoke and the little frog became the creature! Then the creature told me why he was here.

"You see we have a magical rock that keeps the Earth together but something took it". "Who took it?", I asked. "We don't know", the creature said, "but if we don't find it in the next week then the Earth will break in half....forever! This is what happened, Nut the stone guarder, was in the woods walking, when he heard a human! He accidentally dropped the stone, before he could go get it, the human picked it up! "We are also here to clean up, but for now you must go!"

"What did the human look like?", I asked. "The human looks like this", he gave me a picture. The picture showed a little girl with brown hair, a little tutu and fair skin. I asked some animals if they could keep an eye out, I had no idea who took the stone until I saw my little sister, Summer, it had to be her! I quickly asked her if I could have the stone, she said..."Yes!" I quickly ran back to the creek, "I got it!".

"Thank you very much!" he said, and he gave me a little bottle of magic.

The End

By Cali Rumpel